2025 Domaine Guffens-Heynen Mâcon-Pierreclos Juliette et les Vieilles de Chavigne
Rating:(96-98)
Release Price:N/A
Drink Date:N/A
Producing a mere nine barrels from 1.3 hectares and, as always, harvested late at full ripeness in pursuit of drama and flavor, the 2025 Mâcon-Pierreclos Juliette et les Vieilles de Chavigne is superb. It unfurls aromas of citrus oil, beeswax and peach, mingled with nuances of wheat toast and nuts. On the palate, it is full-bodied and concentrated, dense and saline, possessing both amplitude and a textural attack, while immense reserves of dry extract impart a compensatory sense of freshness, underpinned by ripe yet racy acidity carrying it to a long, resonant finish. It stands as the king of the cellar this year.

2025 Domaine Guffens-Heynen Pouilly-Fuissé Tris des Hauts des Vignes
Rating:(94-96)
Release Price:N/A
Drink Date:N/A
The 2025 Pouilly-Fuissé Tris des Hauts des Vignes is brilliant, expanding from the glass with a bouquet of orange oil, pear and beeswax, mingled with notes of freshly baked bread and peach. On the palate, it is full-bodied and structured, concentrated and deep, possessing both amplitude and texture while remaining simultaneously incisive, propelled by racy acidity into a long, chalky finish. A blend of Petits Croux, Les Crays and the upper sector of Croux—where the vineyards are harvested in multiple passes, or tris—it has a bright future ahead of it.

2025 Domaine Guffens-Heynen Saint-Véran C.C.P.
Rating:(93-95)
Release Price:N/A
Drink Date:N/A
Guffens's 2025 Saint-Véran C.C.P., derived from the two lieux-dits Clos de Poncetys and Les Combes, was picked earlier than the Saint-Véran Les Carettes and emerges from the glass with aromas of orange oil, white flowers and toasted nuts. On the palate, it is full-bodied, ample and enveloping, underpinned by tangy acidity. Rich and grandiose, it possesses striking mid-palate amplitude and texture while remaining simultaneously tightly wound.

2025 Domaine Guffens-Heynen Mâcon-Pierreclos Tris de Chavigne
Rating:(93-95)
Release Price:N/A
Drink Date:N/A
Derived from clay-rich parcels high on the slope and harvested over multiple passes between August 27 and September 15, the 2025 Mâcon-Pierreclos Tris de Chavigne is a success, and it comes as little surprise that it is more generously structured than its immediate predecessor. Unfurling from the glass with aromas of pear, peach, lemon confit and exotic flowers mingled with nuts, it reveals a medium- to full-bodied, layered and incisive palate framed by ample structuring dry extract and concluding with a long, persistent finish. Anyone seeking a reliable success in a blind tasting without breaking the bank would do well to put this bottle to the test.

2025 Domaine Guffens-Heynen Saint-Véran Les Carettes
Rating:(91-94)
Release Price:N/A
Drink Date:N/A
From an entirely north-facing lieu-dit, yet attaining an impressive 13.8% alcohol at a September 1 harvest, the 2025 Saint-Véran Les Carettes delivers aromas of pear and peach mingled with freshly baked bread and a touch of lees-derived reduction. On the palate, it is medium- to full-bodied, concentrated, lively and precise, with a racy spine of acidity, a delicately marine profile and a layered core of fruit, concluding with a saline finish.

2025 Domaine Guffens-Heynen Pouilly-Fuissé Les Trois C.
Rating:(90-92)
Release Price:N/A
Drink Date:N/A
One of the more immediately giving wines in the range this year is the 2025 Pouilly-Fuissé Les Trois C., blossoming in the glass with notes evocative of pear, peach, honeycomb and toasted nuts. On the palate, it is medium- to full-bodied, broad and supple, with a rich core of fruit. As usual, it is derived from the lieux-dits Les Crays, La Côte and Les Carmentrans.

2024 Domaine Guffens-Heynen Pouilly-Fuissé Croux et Petits Croux
Rating:97
Release Price:N/A
Drink Date:2030 - 2060
The 2024 Pouilly-Fuissé Croux et Petits Croux is a great success, and one would scarcely suspect the complications imposed by the vintage from tasting it. Blossoming in the glass with aromas evocative of pear, peach, orange oil and white currant mingled with freshly baked bread and hazelnut, it segues into a full-bodied, deep and layered palate. Nicely concentrated and muscular, it is framed by chalky structuring extract and culminates in a long, saline finish. It's an impressive achievement for the vintage, and one should not think twice before adding it to the cellar.

2024 Domaine Guffens-Heynen Mâcon-Pierreclos Tris de Chavigne
Rating:94
Release Price:N/A
Drink Date:2028 - 2047
The 2024 Mâcon-Pierreclos Tris de Chavigne blossoms in the glass with aromas of pear, white currant and freshly baked bread, mingled with a subtle exotic note of passion fruit. Medium-bodied and fleshy yet vibrant, it reveals a texture rarely encountered in this vintage, framed by structuring extract and a cool, marine profile, concluding with a long, saline finish. It incorporates some of the fruit that would typically inform his Juliette et Les Vieilles de Chavigne cuvée.
